

Summer Reading for First Graders Frog and Toad Collection

Dear Parents,

Please read any of the stories from the Frog and Toad Collection by Arnold Lobel. As you read with your child, discuss the different characters, their personalities and how they are all friends. When you are finished, please answer the following questions with your child and bring it on the first day of school.

Please answer the following questions with your child and bring to school on the first day of classes.

1. What does it mean to be a friend?
2. How is being a good friend the same as being like Jesus?
3. Are you more like Frog or more like Toad? Why?
